Public Comment

Kathleen Swan had questions regarding reporting relationships for the bookstore personnel. She also provided an update on the status of the Willow International bookstore. Dr. Stewart advised Ms. Swan to meet with President Ikeda to get her questions answered.

Joint District and
Campus President's
Reports

Deborah Ikeda, Willow International Community College Center Campus President, reported on topics of interest from the District, Fresno City College, Reedley College, and the Oakhurst and Madera Center, and the Willow International Community College Center, which included the following highlights:

- Natalie Chavez, Foster Kinship Care Education Coordinator, and Nick Lucio, academic counselor, were highlighted in the John Burton Foundation Newsletter. It featured their efforts to provide academic support to nearly 200 foster youth at FCC to complete their Student Education Plan (SEP) and clarify their academic goals, career interests and transfer options.
- Seven sophomores from the Fresno City College Women's Basketball Team have received scholarships to play basketball next year. The list is headed by Northern California "Player of the Year" Keyora Wharry (Edison) who is headed to Colorado State. RC is part of consortium that was awarded a one-time competitive $9 million grant under the California Career Pathways Trust. Reedley College has partnered with Sanger Unified and Paramount Farms, the world's largest grower and processor of almonds and pistachios. On June 16, RC will host a week-long Ag Camp for 75 incoming 8th graders. These students will be staying in the RC Residence Hall, taking Ag classes from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m., a counseling class from 1-5 p.m., and P.E. from 6-9 p.m. Not only will RC be getting these students excited about college, but they will be great recruits for Reedley Middle College High School. RC also has 75 incoming 9th graders who will take part in the Paramount Ag Academy this summer. These students will be taking a college counseling class at Sanger High School. In the fall, they will take their high school classes and a college computer class at Sanger High School. In the spring, they will take a college health class along with their high school classes.
- The Reedley College Strategic Plan consists of six strategic directions. Within these directions there are 25 objectives which are to be addressed over the next four years. At MOR (Madera,

Joint District and

- Oakhurst, and Reedley), there is a systematic approach to implementing the Strategic Plan which fosters a culture of continuous quality improvement. On July 25, President's Advisory Council along with planning leaders will participate in a Strategic Planning Workshop to identify the top six objectives. The Fall Opening Day Conference will be used to begin work on the objectives with input from the entire campus. This process was used last year and was very successful in addressing (SP 3.2) to improve program review, (SP 5.2) provide equitable programs and services across all locations, and (SP 5.3), and develop a human resources staffing plan in alignment with the district plan.
- On May 19, 2014 the Board of Governors unanimously approved the district's request to receive college status for Willow International Community College Center and recognize the new name of Clovis Community College Center. WI will go through an initial accreditation visit in March 2015. The visiting team's report will go to the June 2015 ACCJC commission meeting and will report their decision the first week in July.
  - Willow International Center held its commencement ceremony on May 23rd. The ceremony was held at in the auditorium at the Clovis Hills Community Church. 74 students participated in the ceremony. Graduates were presented with an Associate's Degree by Board of Trustees President Patrick Patterson and Campus President Deborah Ikeda. Our keynote speaker was Dr. Janet Young, Superintendent of Clovis Unified School District. Willow's graduating class also chose a student speaker this year, Ms. Brianna White. Congratulations to the student award winners: Jared Dalley and Elba Scherer for the President's Award, Jillian Baker, Rachel Boyt, John Hayes, and Emily Ann Sparks for the Distinguished Graduate awards.
  - The Review, a collection of student work from the English and Art departments of Willow International for 2014 has arrived. The annual publication showcases the work of the Willow students. Many thanks to Stephen Dent, Erik Fritz, Teresa Ishigaki, Kirtley King, and Jennifer Simonson for their oversight and contribution as Advisors, to the students who submitted work for inclusion in the publication, to the faculty in whose classes the submissions were created, and to the tutors and staff who participated. The Review continues to maintain the excellent level of quality in terms of the essays, art work, and publication layout

Enrollment Update

Pedro Avila provided information on the district's summer and fall enrollment. The numbers for 2014 summer enrollment have increased significantly from the 2013 summer enrollment. He thanked the district's PIOs for the marketing campaign to help increase enrollment.

Eric Payne asked if the issues regarding the police academy are resolved. Dr. Stewart stated he will form a taskforce to take a look at issues regarding the academy. He reminded the board that they also need to consider the fire academy and the CTE programs. He met with Chief Dyer and Sheriff Mims and they are in agreement that the best facility will be the southeast site. The passage of a bond will assist in the building of a first rate facility. Richard Lindstrom stated he is in agreement with the Chancellor's assessment. He stated he researched the use district office north classroom space for in service advanced post classes, not the academy. He said moving the academy to the site would be a burden to the program.

Trustee Payne stated the district needs to make sure the process incorporates good planning especially when entering into partnerships with city and county entities.
